KIOSQUE À MUSIQUE

The bandstand on Allées de la Liberté is a local landmark, nestled between Rue Félix Faure and Promenade de la Pantiero with views of the Vieux-Port. The bandstand was designed by the architect Louis Hourlier in 1880 to host musical performances, making it living proof of the city's cultural legacy.

Its prime location and fantastic acoustics make it the perfect venue for VIP events. It was listed as a national heritage site in 1990 and blends both style and function with its stone platform and conical roof supported by cast iron pillars.

The landmark captures the local culture and love for music, setting the stage for unforgettable events.
